Then threatened to arrest her for making a statement. Officers threw me down and put knees into my back when I wasn't resisting. They asked me to show them evidence. They had no patience. When the original investigating officer called I gave him evidence that was not turned over to the D.A. Had they done this, there would be no case. They threatened my neighbor. I am requesting & pray for $5000 from each officer. They also lied about evidence
